

GRADUATES ENTERTAINED.

TENDERED A RECEPTION BY MRS. HEARST.

A Delightful Time Was Spent at the Hacienda Near Pleasanton.

Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst's reception to the graduating class of the University of California at her country home, Hacienda del Dozo de Verona, near Pleasanton, Monday afternoon will long be remembered by the newly made alumni. The guests reached Verona at 3 o'clock on a special train and were driven to the beautiful dwelling on the hill.

There were 200 members of the college class present besides a few others of Mrs. Hearst's friends. Mrs. Hearst received her guests at the entrance to the library. It was originally intended to make the reception a garden party, but the threatening weather caused it to be turned into a house party.

The large music-room at the western end of the mansion was well filled during the afternoon, a large orchestra being stationed there. After the guests had been shown through the many rooms of the house and admired its rich tapestries and paintings, refreshments were served in the library, dining-room and hallway. The throng of guests returned on the 6 o'clock train to Oakland, the collegians singing the songs of their alma mater.

The guests present were: Mrs. William Carey Jones, Miss MacDonald, Misses E. D. Armer, Ruth Atterbury, E. Aniser, E. J. Borden, E. G. Barron, Centennia Barto, Lulu Blumberg, H. C. Boyard, L. G. JUDGE CAMPBELL PASSES AWAY.

DIES SUDDENLY IN SAN FRANCISCO LAST NIGHT.

Had Resided in South Berkeley a Number of Years.

Judge J. A. Campbell of South Berkeley died very suddenly on Monday night in San Francisco. Death came to the Judge at 110 Ellis street, whither deceased had gone to attend a meeting of the picnic committee of the Society of Old Friends, of which he was President.

Pending the calling of the meeting to order Judge Campbell joined in a game of cards.

Suddenly he complained of a numbness in his left arm and asked Dr. Condory what the cause was. The physician diagnosed the case as apoplexy and the patient was at once placed in bed. In ten minutes he passed away despite the most strenuous exertions of physicians.

Deceased had been a police judge of San Francisco for the past twelve years and was a native of Pennsylvania. For several years past he has resided with his wife on Ashby avenue, near Loreno street, South Berkeley.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been decided on.

BETTER SCHOOL FACILITIES.

BOARD OF EDUCATION TO TAKE NEW STEPS.

Arrangements Made for a Special Meeting to Be Held Saturday Night.

The Board of Education met Monday evening. The subject of the new building was discussed at length and it was referred to the committee on school houses and sites which is to bring in a report next Saturday night at a special meeting.

The object in view now is the building of a temporary structure on the Kellogg grounds for the accommodation of all of the 9th grades. There are to be four rooms for this purpose. It is to be put up as cheaply as possible and the Board thinks this plan better than renting as the rent would almost pay for the building which would be better adapted to the work. The committee is to submit plans Saturday.

The advisability of a slight change in the course of study was also discussed and will be settled next Saturday.

The following applications were received for positions as teachers: Miss Clara Macomber, Miss Anna H. Billings, Miss Hallie Porter, Miss Willuth B. Ross, Miss Ethel L. Heinman, and E. F. Pierce.

The following bills were ordered paid: D. S. Adams, $110; Thos. Stevenson, $132.

Director Crew of Lorin announced his intention of bringing the matter of music in the public schools, before the Board at the special meeting. Superintendent Perham submitted the following report for the month ending April 30th:

STRUCK BY THE BERKELEY LOCAL.

John Burke, who claims Illinois as his home was struck by the Berkeley train yesterday afternoon and escaped with a badly smashed foot. Burke has been staying in Oakland for a few days, and yesterday decided to go to work.

At Sixteenth street station, while waiting for his train, he became confused and stepped in front of the Berkeley local which was in the act of slowing for the stop and was well under control of the engineer. Luckily for him the train was almost instantly stopped, and he escaped without any more serious injury.

He was at once taken to the Receiving hospital, where his injured foot was dressed by Dr. Horn.

The Military Company.

The enrollment list of the military company which is being organized in this city is in the care of Dr.

Jessup, of Berkeley Station, and those who wish to join may sign at his office.

PROFESSOR GAYLEY'S LITERARY WORK.

Since Professor C. M. Gayley was granted a year's leave of absence, under full pay, by the regents of the University of California, to edit an edition of old English plays, not much has been heard by the local public of that enterprise. But now the publishers, the MacMillans, announce that the first of the five volumes is about to appear; or rather, it will come out early in the fall, and will contain an introduction by Professor Gayley on the "Beginnings of English Comedy," dramatic elements in miracle plays, moralities, etc. Here, as in other volumes, the general introduction will cover the history of the species within the limits illustrated by plays in the volume, and with special reference to authors and plays not represented in the body of the volume. Among the dramatists represented in volume one will be the following: John Heywood, edited by A. W. Pollard of St. John's College, Oxford; Nicholas Udall, edited by Professor Ewald Flugell of Stanford University; George Cascoyne; John Still, edited by Henry Bradley, Oxford; John Lyley, edited by Professor G. P. Baker of Harvard; George Peele, edited by Professor F. B. Grummere, Harvard College; Greene's Place in Comedy, by Prof. G. E. Woodbury of Columbia University; Robert Greene, edited by Professor C. M. Gayley; Shakespeare as a Comic Dramatist, by Professor Edward Dowden of Trinity College, Dublin.

Heywood's Interludes will mark the higher limit of the selection, Sheridan's School for Scandal the lower. Each of these octavo volumes will contain about 650 pages, and in the five books about forty plays will be treated. The publishers announce also that they may issue the several plays in separate volumes if the demand justifies such a course.

A SERIOUS

ACCIDENT.

Mark Dowden, who resides on Fulton street north of Ashby avenue, met with what may prove a very serious accident last Sunday on board the steamer Santa Rosa. A hammer broke and struck Mr. Dowden in the face, breaking his nose, knocking out several teeth and cutting him fearfully, besides other injuries which cannot yet be ascertained. He remained unconscious until this morning and only regains consciousness for short intervals, when he complains of his shoulders.

The injured man arrived this morning on the Santa Rosa and was conveyed to his home in the Fabiola Hospital ambulance. Dr. Allen is in attendance. Mr. Dowden was traveling for a New York wholesale house.

Derby Day Profits.

Unofficial estimates of the returns for Fabiola's Derby day show that the ladies will probably realize about $2000 from the benefit at the race track Saturday afternoon. It will be several days before all those who sold tickets will turn in their lists and money, so it will not be until then that an exact statement can be issued.

TINKERS AND LOCKSMITHS.

Spoil every umbrella they try to repair. Why not go to Courtney's Umbrella Factory, 380 Thirteenth street, corner of Franklin, Oakland.

MEETINGS OF THE FIREMEN.

BEACONS ARRANGE A BOXING CONTEST.

North Berkeleyans and Alerts Will Transact Their Business This Evening.

The Beacon Fire Company held its regular meeting Monday night. Not much business of importance was transacted. The committee reported progress on tower and other improvements which are being done on their building to the amount of $750. The bell committee asked for another week's time, which was granted. The Beacon athletic committee reported that next Wednesday evening they would make final arrangements for the boxing contest between Ed Finnigan and Young Johnson, which will take place before the club June 4th, for a purse of $100.

The Posen Fire Company held its regular meeting Monday, but other than the usual business nothing of importance was done.

OBSERVANCE OF MEMORIAL DAY.

Lookout Mountain Post G. A. R. met last Sunday evening in Odd Fellows' Hall. Among other business was the discussion of memorial exercises. It was decided to have services in the Baptist church Sunday, May 29th, sermon to be preached by Rev. D. J. Pierce. On Memorial day the Post is to go to the cemetery in a body, and in the evening there will be an entertainment in some hall yet to be selected. Contributions are being solicited for this purpose, and it is expected that Shattuck hall will be the place chosen. However this is in the hands of a committee composed of J. R. Ayer, E. P. Bancroft and S. D. Waterman.

Embryo Dentists.

The commencement exercises of Dentistry U. C. will be held in Harmon Gymnasium on Wednesday.

SIZE.

Many business men hesitate to advertise because they imagine that only large announcements pay. This is a serious mistake. A good small advertisement is good in spite of its size, but no increase in the size of a bad advertisement will make it a good advertisement. A small advertisement well constructed and properly placed can be a good one, and no business man should hesitate to place his goods before the public because he cannot afford a full page. Let the size of your ad correspond with the size of your business, be clothed in plain, precise terms and properly constructed as to type, and its size will not hinder its usefulness.—Western Advertiser.

SPANISH-AMERICANISM.

EDITOR GAZETTE: It is noticeable that a great many persons of Spanish descent who reside in the vicinity of Berkeley are showing their Americanism by offering to enlist in our Army. For some unaccountable reason there seems to be a prejudice against them on the part of the enlisting officers, and thus far, none have been accepted. Now this does not seem fair or just. If we were fighting Germany, our ranks would be filled with persons of German descent, and they would show their loyalty beyond cavil. Why then should we discriminate against our fellow citizens of darker hue? The policy of the enlisting officers is neither fair nor just, and should be altered without delay.

CITIZEN.

EDITOR GAZETTE: A gentleman residing in Berkeley but who does business in San Francisco, desires me to call the attention of our citizens and the Health Officer to the practice of the Chinese peddlers who prowl through the wholesale vegetable and fruit stores of the city in the evening, just before closing time, buying up all the unsold fruit, garden truck, etc., carrying it to their opium-smelling dens, thrust under their bunks in their disease-breeding rooms, 10x12 in size, where it remains all night in the same foul-smelling air. It is then sprinkled over with water, sorted over by the unwashed crowd of pagans, packed in baskets and brought to Berkeley and sold as "all same nice fresh."

This gentleman, whose duties keep him until a late hour in the city has seen enough to cause him to make it a standing order in his household to buy nothing of a Chinese vegetable peddler. He says that if some of the Chinamen's customers could see their mode of living and their manner of making their vegetables look fresh and crisp, they would not have so many customers or do so much business. Just fancy, gentle reader, of your favorite peddler taking his blouse, shoes and other garments, and carefully spreading the articles over his goods, wares and merchandise, so as to dress quickly and catch the first boat in the morning. There are certainly enough fruit and vegetable stores in Berkeley where at least, as the writer knows, the goods are handled by white men and brought in from Oakland in the early hours of the morning, and for cleanliness and health's sake they should be more liberally patronized.

JOHN E. BOYD.

SCHOOL FACILITIES.

It is to be hoped that the new effort which the Board of Education will make to increase our school facilities will be successful. There is no reason why they should not.

SOME CONSOLATION.

Dr. Dille, who opposed the Fabiola benefit at the Emeryville race track on moral grounds, may derive some consolation from the fact that the rain served to keep down the attendance.

BERKELEY VOLUNTEERS.

If the military company which is now being formed in Berkeley is ever ordered to the front, the boys may be depended on to give a good account of themselves and reflect credit on our city.

THOSE COLLEGE YELLS.

How the Spanish troops will scatter when that regiment containing the Stanford and Berkeley students indulges in one of the old-time college rushes, says the Oakland Tribune. There is no patriotism more marked than that of these young collegians who are deferring their race for wealth with the rest of the world until after the honor of their country has been satisfied.

JUDGE CAMPBELL.

The passing of Judge James A. Campbell removes one of the best known public characters of this part of the world. The judge was a man of unbounded popularity. His unique courtroom methods were a source of merriment and sometimes of ridicule, but they probably produced better results than are obtainable in the petty cases of a metropolitan police court by the stern decorum and red tape that is supposed to surround a judge. Judge Campbell was never on his dignity and never disposed to bother about keeping in line with custom. A brief dialogue with prisoner and complaining witness, after a running fire of jokes, and then a quick decision and the judge satisfied that he had arrived at the truth, would call the next case. And he generally did arrive at the truth.

WESTERN TRADE GOOD.

The Chicago Tribune has been inquiring among the business men of that city as to the effects of the war upon trade. The opinions seem to bear out what an old advertiser said three weeks ago. Since the outbreak of hostilities the grocery trade improved, nor is it believed that the betterment is only temporary. The grocery market from the consumer to the jobber is active, and although the latter usually carries a very heavy stock at this time of the year, he finds it difficult to supply the western trade. The result is a demand upon the original sources of supply, and that in the opinion of unqualified judges means a steady rise of prices and consequent activity for a long time. The advance of prices affects the consumer to some extent, but an oppressive increase is not looked for.

Several houses informed the Tribune reporters that their business has never been better in years, and that it was not affected by the war, and that traveling men have not been recalled from the road. Mr. Fair, manager of Marshall Field & Co., took a hopeful view of the situation, and other men equally well known were equally sanguine.

FOR GLOOMY WEATHER.

"Didn't I hear you say something about the trump of fame?" inquired Senator Sorghum. "Yes," replied the young man. "It's a common phrase." "And a very good one, too. It's a very valuable reminder that a man who wants to get along has to know how to play his cards."—Washington "Star."

"I don't see where I come in on your scheme," said Uncle Silas to the fire insurance agent. "If I pay you $100 I lose the hundred, and if my house burns down I lose the house. Seems as if I was doomed anyhow!"

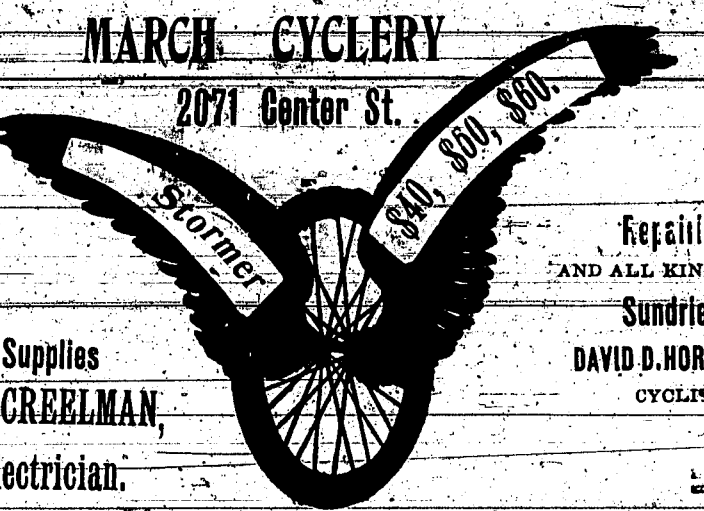

Great Success—How did the surprise party at the Cawkers' turn out? Was it a genuine surprise?

"Indeed it was. Somebody had given the Cawkers a hint, and when we got there the house was dark and there wasn't a soul at home."—Harper's Bazar.

Scammon's Design.

The Murphy, a magazine published by the Ladies' Relief Society of Alameda County, has a dainty cover design by Mr. Lawrence Scammon of the art department at the U. O., Berkeley. Mr. Scammon is to be congratulated on his success, as there were many competitors for the prize. The magazine, only this one issue of which is to be published, should be in every household in Oakland for two good reasons: First, because of the high standard of literary excellence of the contributions and selections and the beauty of the half-tone illustrations; and, second, because each magazine purchased aids considerably the fund so nobly to be expended.—Enquirer.

"Berkeley."

The collection of views of the town and University just issued from the World office under the direction of J. L. Scofield, is one that should be in the possession of every resident and property owner.

There is no better method of conveying a clear impression of the physical features of a place than this one of a carefully selected arrangement of photographic reproductions. Visitors have daily inquired for some publication that could show what Berkeley is. This work supplies just this demand, besides giving an artistic and valuable souvenir for local preservation.

The selection of subjects is general, displaying in a striking manner the growth of the community. The view from the hills looking west in 1873 is contrasted with a similar view in 1898, and the change is remarkable. Transformation scenes around Berkeley station in 1888 and 1898 are likewise presented.

This album is offered at so low a price as to be within the reach of every one. The book contains forty pages of pictures, most of them full page, and these are accompanied by just enough descriptive matter to present clearly and concisely the material development of the community.

To accommodate those who may desire to send away to friends or correspondents several copies, an abridged edition can be delivered at a proportionately lower rate.

The price of the book at this office is 50 cents, which is far below the rate of similar publications in other cities. Do not delay.

Your orders can be left at office of Berkeley Gazette, 2145 Center street, where copies can be procured.

UTILITY OFCOMFORT BAGS.

The experience of the Christian Endeavorers of this State in furnishing to the men of the navy and mercantile fleets comfort bags as a part of the religious work carried on under the floating committees comes into good purpose now in connection with the Red Cross Society and they will take up the effort upon a larger scale than ever. The work is in the hands of M. C. Turner of San Diego, State superintendent of the floating work, and Miss Mindora L. Berry, State superintendent of missions. Circulars are being sent to every of the 700 societies in California asking for bags to be made and forwarded at once to the missionary extension headquarters, 760 A Harrison street, San Francisco.

Each bag is to contain a small New Testament, marked; paper, envelopes and pencil; needles, pins, coarse black and white thread, courplaster, bandage and vaseline. In addition to this a personal letter of Christian cheer must accompany each bag. At the headquarters in San Francisco State Christian Endeavor badges, printed on satin ribbon, will be sewed on the bags. Probably many of the small country societies will not be able to furnish all the articles, therefore donations of articles or money for the purchase of the same will be thankfully received at 760 A Harrison street by Miss Berry.

HEALTH, CATECHISMTo Be Committed to Memory by*All Dyspeptics, Invalids,*Consumptives.

What is the first cause of nine-tenths of all disease?
Imperfect digestion of food.
Why does imperfect digestion cause disease of other organs?
Because blood, muscles, bone and flesh are derived from the food we eat and digest. If digestion is perfect the blood is pure, nerves and muscles strong, flesh firm. If the digester is poor, the blood is supplied from half-digested, fermenting food, irritating every nerve and organ. The result is, sooner or later, organic disease, because every organ being poorly nourished the weakest gives way first and we have liver trouble, kidney complaints, heart disease or consumption.
Is not dieting the usual and best treatment to cure indigestion?
No, because the dyspeptic has been starved long enough; what is needed is abundant nourishment, not the lack of it. The stomach and blood demand nutriment, not bran crackers.
What is the best method of cure?
Plenty of wholesome food well digested.
But how can a weak stomach digest plenty of wholesome food?
By taking with the food after each meal certain harmless remedies which are known to digest food and thus nourish the blood and rest the weak stomach.
What are these harmless remedies?
The most valuable are vegetable emments, pure pepsin, Golden Seal and fruit salts. All of these are now combined in the form of pleasant-tasting tablets sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Are these tablets superior to the various liquid preparations so called dyspepsia cures?
Most decidedly, because all liquid medicines become stale with age and lose whatever good qualities they may have had originally, while the tablet retains its properties indefinitely. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can be carried in the pocket, always at hand ready for use when traveling or at daily occupation. They cost but 50 cents, and should be kept in every family. They keep the digestion perfect and save doctor's bills by warding off disease.

Are Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets adapted to all forms of dyspepsia?
Yes, because in all cases the trouble results from indigestion, fermenting food. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cause the food to be digested before it has time to ferment.

If you wish to know more about them ask your druggist for a package and try them.
